

Landscape change in modern age: from 19th century towards today's landscape

CASEE SUMMER SCHOOL

2019

- changes in agricultural practises
- water in landscape – amelioration, straightening of rivers and streams
- intensive coal and ore mining, recultivation, deforestation, reforestation
- new modes of transport and their impact on landscape
- landscape memory loss (key elements, patterns...)

- urbanisation, forced depopulation, return of the wilderness
- loss of settlements, establishment of modern towns and cities
- change of scenery and visual qualities
- renewables and modern production of energy

When?

July 1st – 14th 2019

Where?

Prague,
Czech Republic

Who may participate?

Students from all CASEE universities

<https://1url.cz/@casee2019>

More information on www.ica-casee.eu

